

All Jacksonville Middle & High School
STUDENTS STILL RIDE FREE

DUVAL COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOL
PHOTO ID POLICY UPDATE

As Duval County Public School students were asked to turn in their ID cards at the end of the school year, the Jacksonville Transportation Authority has determined other methods of identification DCPS students can use to continue to ride the bus for free this summer.

Any of the following will be accepted this summer to allow a student to ride the bus for free:

- Their old school ID.
- A printed report card.
- Proof of enrollment via the DCPS Focus app on their mobile phone.
- A birth certificate showing their age as 18 or under.

This policy will end after DCPS students return to school and receive their new ID cards. Students return to school on August 14, the policy ends on August 15.

Applies to Duval County Public School students only.
Students from other schools must still use their school ID.

POLICY IN EFFECT UNTIL AUGUST 15, 2023
